Monterey County District Attorney Dean D. Flippo announced today that Tami Huntsman, age 39, and Gonzolo Curiel, age 17, have been transferred to Monterey County.

Charges against the defendants were dismissed by Plumas County District Attorney David Hollister on Wednesday so that the case could be pursued in Monterey County. Both defendants were immediately transported to Monterey County where they are being held on no bail warrants. They are expected to be arraigned on Friday, January 8 at 1:30 in Department 1.
