1. Welcome/ Call to Order
The meeting was called to order at 3:35 p.m.

2. Public Comments (limit 3 minutes per speaker)
Action: A public comment was received from Elliot Ruchowitz-Roberts regarding two articles published by the Monterey County Herald newspaper concerning the population at County Jail, and the County’s high bail fees. The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) recommends reducing bail fees, in an effort to decrease the jail population.

3. Regular Agenda
3.1. Approve the CCP Meeting Minutes of May 21, 2012.
Action: Meeting minutes were approved with a correction: Add LeVonne Stone’s name to the list of attendees. (Motion: Scott Miller / Second: James Egar/ Vote: Unanimous).

3.2. Monterey County Community Corrections
A. Receive general updates from the CCP members.
Action: Updates received.
  a. Probation distributed AB 109 data from October 2011 through May 31, 2012 (Attachment 1). Three offenders have been successfully terminated from PRCS.
  b. The Sheriff’s Office distributed AB 109 data for the month of May (Attachment 2).
  c. Behavioral Health reported that, to date, staff has completed psychological assessments on 144 individuals released from CDCR, and distributed a summary (Attachment 3). Approximately 79% of offenders are males and 21% are females.
  d. The Department of Social and Employment Services (DSES) reported that, to date, 74 offenders have been referred for assistance with employment services through the AB109 employment program; 14 assessments have been completed. DSES recommends investing on additional resources for job development.

  Turning Point of Central California reported that the referrals to their program are increasing from 1 in April, to 3 in May, and 5 in June.

  e. Courts/ Legal reported that the Own Recognizance (OR) program continues to function well.
B. Data Collection Coordination:

Action: Updates received. Since the last CCP meeting, the Ad Hoc Data Committee has met twice with consultant Marie Glavin to discuss the AB 109 Partner Data Evaluation Interface Plan. On June 25th, committee members will meet again to determine the format of the monthly reports to the CCP. Consultants Marie Glavin and Charlotte Noyes will meet with each of the agencies to discuss the desired outcomes.

C. Crime Justice Institute (CJI) Workshops:

Action: Updates received. Consultant Charlotte Noyes, Director Todd Keating, Management Analyst (MA) II Robyn Rodriguez, Victim Witness Unit Manager Pamela Paterson, and Legal Typist Nancy Sanchez will be attending the CJI workshop on Measuring Realignment that will be held on June 21st in Sacramento.

D. Service Level Budget FY 12-13:

Action: Updates received. At the last CCP meeting, agencies were asked to submit to Probation their budget assumption for a 12-month service level by June 1st. To date, only Behavioral Health submitted its budget. Probation will forward to all agencies the draft budget proposal for their review; agencies will receive approximately twice the amount of funding for a 12-month period. Probation has included in its budget the implementation of the pre-trial services program to help reduce the population at the jail. The Board of Supervisors (BOS) is scheduled to adopt the FY 2012-13 Recommended Budget on Tuesday, June 26th.

E. Jail overcrowding and AB 109/ building on the efforts made during the first year – James Egar:

Action: Updates received. Public Defender James Egar distributed a memorandum on AB 109 Initiatives (Attachment 5), which outlines the progress made by the CCP in the first year of the realignment. The document also includes a list of suggestions by the Public Defender to enhance the realignment tools, in an effort to address the overcrowding and safety issues at County Jail. A discussion ensued on the following topics:

- Compiling a list of all programs for AB 109
- Update to Judges on the various programs
- Monitoring of services provided to clients
- Utilizing flash incarcerations and split sentences
- Revisiting bail rates
- Day Reporting Center (DRC) program count and expansion of services
- Additional programs for offenders who are in-custody
- Enhancing risk assessment tools
- Supporting additional funding for beds at County Jail
