New Logo and Brand:

The Office of Inspector General (OIG), recently audited California County programs. The have determined that $230 million is owed back to the federal government; this will result in Monterey County Behavioral Health owing between $1-2 million. We will continue to invest in our Quality Improvement efforts to reduce potential risk in the future.

The mission of the OIG, as mandated by Public Law 95-452, as amended, is to protect the integrity of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) programs, as well as the health and welfare of beneficiaries served by those programs.

New Building:

Behavioral Health is beginning the process of planning to build a new facility for county services on the East side of Salinas. This new facility will be 18,000 square feet with a community room.
