Monterey County District Attorney Dean D. Flippo announced today that a Monterey County jury found Abraham Garcia Rodriguez, a 35-year-old resident of King City, guilty of domestic battery after a week-long trial.

On July 16, 2017, the defendant became angry with his wife, Jane Doe, after she left their home without his permission. The defendant waited for her return at their assigned carport and slapped her upon arrival. Jane Doe called 911 and reported this, then told officers again of the assault when they arrived and interviewed her.

Judge Thomas Wills sentenced the defendant to 30 days in the Monterey County Jail and placed him on probation for three years.

Detective Joshue Partida and Officer Jace Bernal of the King City Police Department investigated the case.
