

Monterey County Area Agency on Aging Recognizes

CHUN CHA TORRES FOR LIVING LIFE WELL

Proudly Proclaimed during October 2019

Your example has taught us all about the wisdom of aging and the importance of staying active. You have shared the secrets of a happy and fulfilled life and have contributed to our community to make it a better place to live. Thank you for showing us how to live life to your full potential at any age.

Everyone has a story to tell if you just take the time to listen.

Ms. Torres was born in Okinawa, Japan then moved to North Korea as a young child. Under threat of war, she was carried by her father from North Korea to South Korea. She became a U.S. citizen more than 50 years ago and moved to Monterey in 1974.

Ms. Torres is the widow of a Korean War veteran.

Ms. Torres has a creative passion – knitting. She has volunteered at the Oldemeyer Center for 15 years teaching the art of knitting. She believes in helping others because of all the help she has received throughout her life.
